ABOUT US

ABOUT US

Our journey began when Unilever decided to bring its internationally acclaimed specialized bakery fats to India; under the brand name of 'Masterline'. We pioneered the concept of specialized bakery fats for various applications in India. In 2003, the US-based integrated global agribusiness and food giant Bunge acquired Masterline brands

Bunge reinforces the Masterline tradition of emphasis on specialization, experimentation, value-addition and innovation and further exposes users of Masterline to international expertise.

Bunge is guided by asset of core values: Integrity, Teamwork, Citizenship, Entrepreneurship, Openness and Trust. These values reflect who we are and what we do. They ensure the effectiveness of our integrated and decentralized approach and help us achieve our purpose of enhancing lives by improving the global agribusiness and food chain. Our core values guide and inspire our work every day.
